

S.A
Correction

Kemi Balogun 19th March/16

Why is your education important?

To be-gin with I will be talking about why your education is important well we will see when we get there. But for now we will talk about learning out of school.

I think education is important out of school because the education you get in school is not enough and they do not teach you about our African or African American ANCESTORS. Where has when we are at home we learn alot more than school and more about the African culture.

I think that if the school taught us about African culture and their culture we would have truth, Natural order, Justice, and a BALANCE, just what we as Africans want us to do.

Now I will tell you what you should try to get as much education as possible. The reason why is so that you will be able to get a good job and have a better future for your family and you'll be able to take responsibility. Also if you learn as much as you can you'll be able to teach other people the things that you have learned and it will carry on in other generations and it will keep passing down. But the one key point is that you have taken into the things that you needed to take in.

pg 1) But the one thing that we African people