

and I didn't forget of what my family and people around me are doing about this matter.

Generally it affects the community or the citizens than the government. therefore land grabbing should not be encouraged, which will then avoid hunger, and land disputes, suffering and lose of lives.